§ 238.10 Armed Forces aerial demonstrations.

(a) Purpose. (1) This part relates to Armed Forces aerial demonstrations in support of community relations programs, including flight team demonstrations, parachute team demonstrations, flyovers, aerial reviews, static displays and other aerial activities.

(2) Attached to this enclosure is the approved DoD "Request for Aerial Demonstration" format.

(b) Definitions. As used herein, the following definitions apply:

(1) Aerial event. Any occasion such as an air show, festival, official Federal Government function, or official military and civic functions held on a military installation or elsewhere where an Armed Forces aerial demonstration is either a primary or incidental attraction.

(2) Aerial demonstration. The use or display of DoD military aircraft or personnel in any aerial event, including the following:

(i) Flight team demonstration. An exhibition of precision aerial maneuvers and techniques flown by an officially designated Service flight demonstration team, such as the U.S. Air Force Thunderbirds and the U.S. Navy Blue Angels.

(ii) Parachute team demonstration. A demonstration of free-fall and precision-landing techniques by the officially designated unit, the U.S. Army Golden Knights. Other military parachute teams, including individuals or groups, may be specifically authorized for such demonstrations when representing the Department of Defense.

(iii) Flyover. A straight and level flight by no more than four military aircraft from a Military Service over a predetermined point on the ground at a specific time and not involving aerobatics or demonstrations.

(iv) Aerial review. A flyover of multiple types of aircraft or aircraft representing more than one Military Service with elements in trail formation and not involving precision maneuvers or demonstrations.

(v) Static display. A ground display of aircraft and its related equipment not involving taxiing or starting of engines while spectators are in the display area.

(vi) Aerial activities. All other aerial demonstrations, not listed in paragraphs (b)(2) (i) through (vi) of this section, designed to portray performance techniques by a single aircraft or group of aircraft or personnel. Such demonstrations include but are not limited to air-to-air refueling, helicopter flight techniques, maximum performance takeoff, performance record demonstrations, mass parachute jumps, air delivery of equipment, assault aircraft demonstrations, tactical helicopter troop landings under simulated tactical conditions, air-rescue demonstrations, and rappelling demonstrations.

(c) Policy. (1) Armed Forces aerial demonstrations may be authorized at appropriate public programs, on a military installation, or elsewhere which meet basic criteria set forth in this Instruction. Support may include officially designated military flight or parachute demonstration teams, flyovers, aerial reviews, the static displays of aircraft, and other aerial activities.

(2) Any aerial demonstration will be entirely dependent upon the Military Services' capability to provide such resources at the time of an event.

(3) All pertinent safety regulations of the Department of Defense and the Department of Transportation (Federal Aviation Agency) will be rigidly observed, and will take precedence over any or all conditions or circumstances.

(4) Maximum advantage of Armed Forces recruiting will be taken at public events where Armed Forces aerial
